

Biografi

Jeppe grew up in Vejle, the son of the saxophonist Jørgen Zacho and started playing the saxophone himself in the school orchestra at the local Rudolf Steiner school and later in Vejlegarden. He moved to Copenhagen at the age of 18 after attending college and has a master's degree from the Rhythmic Music Conservatory in Copenhagen. Has worked for a number of years with various bands, e.g. Jazz Five, Jack Street, The Counterfictionals and various big bands. He composes his own music and in 2024 he released his debut "Introducing Jeppe Zacho" on April Records. Jeppe has several trips to Cuba behind him and has a thorough knowledge of Afro-Cuban music. Jeppe also teaches as a saxophone and clarinet teacher at Musikhøjskolen in Frederiksberg.
